EACH PIECE EXISTS AS BOTH A STANDALONE ARTIFACT AND PART OF A LARGER, INTERCONNECTED SYSTEM.

Recent and upcoming:

- EP—Body of musical work
- Ongoing visual releases + collectible mixed-media collage editions
- Expansion into long-form written and conceptual work

This work is not built for passive consumption.

It is designed to:

- slow people down

- explore identity beyond surface-level expression
- create space for reflection and internal alignment

The intention is to build experiences that resonate beyond the moment—and remain.

Seeking alignment with collectors and patrons interested in supporting the long-term expansion of this body of work.

Support enables:

- continued multidisciplinary releases

- documentation of the full creative process

Patrons gain proximity to the work as it evolves—beyond the surface level of release.
